MATERIALITY POLICIES

Introduction

This policy (“Policy”) has been formulated to define the materiality policy for identification of group companies, outstanding litigations and outstanding dues to creditors in respect of Millennium Engineers And Contractors Limited (“Company”), pursuant to the disclosure requirements under Schedule VIII of the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Issue of Capital and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2009 (as amended from time to time) (“SEBI ICDR Regulations”), which states that the policy of materiality should be disclosed in the offer document.

Applicability

The Board of Directors of the Company (“Board”) has, at their meeting held on February 15, 2019, discussed and approved this Policy. This Policy shall be effective from the date of approval of policy by the Board.

In this Policy, the term “Offer Documents” shall mean the draft prospectus, the prospectus and the final prospectus, including any amendments, supplements or corrigenda thereto, to be filed by the Company in connection with the proposed initial public offering of its equity shares with the Securities and Exchange Board of India, the Registrar of Companies, Pune and/or stock exchange(s) where the equity shares of the Company are proposed to be listed, as applicable.

All other capitalised terms not specifically defined in this Policy shall have the same meanings ascribed to such terms in the Offer Documents.

1. Policy on ‘Material’ Group Companies

1.1 Requirement

As per the SEBI ICDR Regulations, the term “Group Companies”, wherever they occur, shall include such companies as covered under the applicable accounting standards (i.e. Accounting Standard 18 issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India “Accounting Standard 18”) and also any other companies as considered material by the Board. The policy on materiality, as stated below, shall be disclosed in the Offer Documents.

1.2 Policy on materiality

For the purpose of disclosure in the Offer Documents, a company shall be considered material and will be disclosed as a “Group Company” in the Offer Documents, if subsequent to the last five years (including any stub period in respect of which, financial statements are included in the Offer Documents, such period collectively referred to as the “Relevant Period”) would require disclosure in the standalone and consolidated financial statements of the Company as entities covered under Accounting Standard 18, in addition to/ other than those companies covered under included in the schedule of related party relationships in terms of Accounting Standard 18 in the consolidated audited financial statements of the Company for the Relevant Period.

For avoidance of doubt, it is clarified that any companies which, in the Relevant Period or subsequent to the Relevant Period, have ceased to be related parties of the Company in terms of Accounting Standard 18 solely on account of there being no significant influence/ control over such company in terms of Accounting Standard 18 after the Relevant Period have not been considered as ‘Group Companies’, for the purpose of disclosure in the Offer Documents.

2. Policy on ‘Material’ Litigation (excluding criminal proceedings, statutory/ regulatory actions and taxation matters)

2.1 Requirement
